

PRESS RELEASE

Grand Opening of Belleville Frameworks in Downtown Belleville

Belleville, Ontario, Oct. 24, 2024 – On Thursday, Oct. 24, Belleville Frameworks, a “one stop-shop” for photos, paintings and more, officially opened its doors at 281 Front St. in Downtown Belleville.

Many community members were present to celebrate the opening of Belleville Frameworks including Councillor Garnet Thompson on behalf of Mayor Neil Ellis, Susan Smith on behalf of MPP Tyler Allsopp and MP Ryan Williams, Dale Hoard and Jill Raycroft from the Belleville Chamber of Commerce, and Downtown Belleville DBIA Board Chair Maury Flunder.

Belleville Frameworks President and CEO Colin Morris said that he chose to open in Belleville because he “recognized the growth and diversity of the entire Quinte region as well as the thriving arts community.”

Morris also owns Kingston Frameworks, a business that was established in 1982. “Downtown is where we got our start in Kingston. I love the community and how much has gone into Downtown Belleville. It is clear that Downtown Belleville is open for business again.”

Belleville Frameworks offers professional art restoration services, and pride themselves on being a “one-stop shop for all of your wall’s needs,” said Morris. “We work with individuals, businesses, institutions, (and) artists. Everything from your first print to getting it on the wall, we can handle it.”

A series of paintings called the “Homeless Series” by artist Joseph Marshal Foster is featured this month, with a portion of the proceeds being donated to The Bridge Integrated Care Centre.
